Punch and Judy

Saturday 30th June,
11am & 2pm
Market Place

The British seaside comes to Evesham Market Place! Childhood memories of sitting on a beach at the seaside, usually freezing cold, watching Punch and Judy? Well, this summer, you only need go as far as the Market Place, as Mel Harvey does two performances of his traditional Punch and Judy show.

Not familiar with Punch and Judy? It is a puppet show, featuring Mr Punch and his long-suffering wife, Judy. A truly unique event – quite hard to put into words – you really need to come along and see for yourself. You'll have the chance to join in the fun. Perfect for all members of the family, young and old!

Story Chefs

Saturday 30th June, Two Sessions, Evesham Library

Session 1 (for 3-7yr olds),
12:30-1:30pm

An interactive session where Staffordshire writer, Lindsey Bailey, will be reading an excerpt from her debut children's book, 'The Cape of Courage', inviting the young (and young at heart) to join in with some role play and a creative writing activity.

Session 2 (for 7-11yr olds),
2:30-3:20pm

This interactive session encourages young writers to release their creativity and let their imagination run wild! Head Chef, Lindsey Bailey, brings the 'Fiction Kitchen' to Evesham this June, providing all the ingredients needed to cook up a tasty tale or two.

**Story Chefs sessions are free but please reserve a place through The Almonry (tel: 01386 446944) or email info@eveshamfestivalofwords.org Children must be accompanied.*
